The Greatest Easter Ever

Written by Bill Perkins

There are 57 days until Easter. If you read the Jesus Story for less than ten minutes a day you'll experience the entire life of Christ in chronological order and reach the resurrection on Easter Day. Only 300 copies of this limited edition copy of the Jesus Story remain. I've discounted them from $35 to $25 until Easter. After the last one is sold there will be no more of this edition with the print run number. To get a copy for yourself or a friend go here.

Today I finished my 61st reading of this amazing book and I learn something new every time I read it. And I get to know the Lord better. I hope you'll join me in reading it as we head toward the celebration of his resurrection.

Following Jesus,

Bill
