

Do You Want to Get Well?

A lyrical devotion

CHORD CHART · LYRICS BY BILL PERKINS · MUSIC RENDERED WITH AI

GUITAR

GUITAR VERSION (Key of G)

Suggested arrangement – adjust to taste and to the recording.

Chorus

G Em
Do you want to get well,
C D
do you want to rise again–
G Em
Jesus asked for desire.
C D G
Jesus asks for a yes.

G Em
Do you want to get well,
C D
let your old excuses fail–
G Em
Jesus asked for desire.
C D G
Jesus asks for a yes.

Verse

G D
He was lying by the water,
Em C
thirty eight years in the dust–
G D
hope had settled into silence,
Em C D
every dream reduced to rust.

G D
But Jesus stood beside him,
Em C
cutting through the hopelessness–
G D
not with shame or accusation,
Em C D
just a question meant for him.

G D
He said, "No one ever helps me,
Em C
and the others get there first–
G D
every step I try to take
Em C D
only leaves me as the cursed."

G D
But Jesus didn't argue,
Em C
didn't measure worth or sin–
G D
He just spoke a word of freedom,
Em C D

calling life to rise in him.

G D
And suddenly it happened,
Em C
strength returning to his bones—
G D
what he couldn't lift for decades
Em C D
he could carry on his own.

G D
The word that Jesus gave him
Em C
woke the life he thought was gone—
G D
and the man who once lay helpless
Em C D
stood and walked into the dawn.

Chorus

G Em
Do you want to get well,
C D
do you want to rise again—
G Em
Jesus asked for desire.
C D G
Jesus asks for a yes.

G Em
Do you want to get well,
C D
let your old excuses fail—
G Em
Jesus asked for desire.
C D G
Jesus asks for a yes.

Outro

C D G
Jesus asked for desire.
C D G
Jesus asks for a yes.
